Bulletin of the Comediantes

Founded by Everett W. Hesse

EDITORIAL POLICY

Published in the Summer and Winter by the Comediantes, an informal, international group of all those interested in the Comedia, the Bulletin welcomes articles and notes in Spanish and English dealing with 16th- and 17th-Century Spanish drama. Submissions are refereed by at least two expert readers. In order to expedite an early decision, contributors should submit an original and one photocopy, accompanied by a self-addressed envelope, loose stamps, an abstract, and an e-mail address. Typescripts should adhere in format to the MLA Style Manual. Accepted articles should be available in typescript and on diskette (IBM, WP 5.1-7.0). Offprints can be purchased by contributors for a set fee. All rights remain with the author. The "Forum" encourages critical and professional dialogue, and the "Mentidero" reports activities relating to the Comedia. Advertising space is available.
